

MANY OFFICERS RECEIVE WINGS

Fliers of 5 Countries
Graduate at Rockcliffe

Ottawa, April 19 (CP).—Airmen from five countries, members of the Royal Canadian Air Force Conversion Training Squadron, received their wings yesterday at a graduation ceremony held at near-by Rockcliffe Air Station.

The pilot's badges were presented by Group Captain H. P. Crabb, director of Manning at R.C.A.F. headquarters.

The ceremony was unusual in that a number of the graduates already held officers' rank. The squadron's program is devoted to providing specialized instruction for staff pilots who play an important part in operation of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan.

The graduates included: Sergeant W. C. Reynolds, North Bay; Aircraftman J. N. Bertrand, Aircraftman H. P. Hay, Ottawa; Aircraftman W. D. Frankish, Aircraftman N. E. Patterson, Toronto.
